SLAIN BY HIS PAL

An Unknown Burglar Murdered Near Danbury.

HIS BODY FOUND IN A RAVINE.

Everywhere About the Scene There Were Evidences of a Struggle.

Bloody Footprints Leading from the Spot to the Water—About the Body There Was a Miscellaneous Lot of Plunder—The Goods Were Stolen at Mill Plain, Conn.

DANBURY, Conn., June 5.—This place has a murder mystery. Clarence Kent, and William Williams, with two others, drove to the farm of Benjamin Lynes, just outside the city limits, on Park avenue, to fish for bass. In order to reach the brook they had to descend a steep embankment which is covered with a thirty growth of small trees.

Another brook runs through the place, and it was near this, in a sort of ravine about 200 feet from the highway, that the fishermen stumbled over the dead body of a man. The police and Medical Examiner Wile were notified and the body was brought to this city and placed in the morgue.

It is a Case of Murder.

When the medical examiner saw the body he said it was a case of murder.
The man was killed and laid out there.
Across the back of the victim's head there was a long, ugly gash, evidently caused by a blow from a heavy instrument like a club. From the gash the blood had been washed clean. There were few traces of blood upon the body, except upon the hands.

Everywhere about the scene there were evidences of a struggle, and it is believed the burglars quarrelled over a division of the plunder.

The man whose body was found had evidently wounded his antagonist, as there were bloody footprints leading from the spot to the water.

About the body in the ravine was found a miscellaneous lot of articles.

The police recognized them as part of the goods stolen from Wilson's store, which was robbed in Mill Plain on Tuesday night. The dead man is believed to be one of the burglars, and the police think he was murdered by his companions. Coroner Doten was telegraphed for, and an investigation will be made.
The murdered man has not been identified.

OFFICERS AFTER MARSH.

The Fugitive Bank President Is Hiding Near Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, June 5.—Gideon Marsh, the fugitive president of the Keystone Bank, is said to be hiding within a few miles of this city, and while the detectives have been scouring the country for him and watching steamers for South American ports Marsh has remained near at hand.

So asserts Francis W. Lawrence, a reputable citizen of Thirion, near Chester, who claims to have traced Marsh to his lair. Lawrence has, however, been carefully guarding his secret, and so much time has elapsed that Marsh may have again escaped and sought a new refuge.

According to Lawrence's story, Marsh has been hiding all this time within two miles of the Highland House at Thirion, the place to which he was traced the Saturday before his flight was made known.

Forced to fly from that refuge by the fear that he would be discovered by reporters or detectives, Marsh left the Highland House and took up quarters at Linwood, two miles further down the river, where he has been repeatedly seen during the past few days.

A warrant has been issued for Marsh's arrest and Lawrence, deputized as a constable with power to serve it.

Abe Coakley In Custody.

NEW YORK, June 5.—Abe Coakley, the notorious bank burglar who was implicated with "Jimmy" Hope in the robbery of the Manhattan Bank in 1878, has just been arrested for a robbery committed two years ago. He and a confederate named Williams robbed a German merchant of $545. Williams turned state's evidence, but the jury in the trial of Coakley disagreed. The latter then gave bail and when his trial was called the second time Coakley could not be found.

The State Must Pay the Commissioners.

BOSTON, June 5.—The Legislative Judicial Committee has submitted its report on the Davis claim for $14,000 commission for his services at Washington. In securing the refunding of the Direct Tax.
The committee says that the Legislature cannot impair a contract and the Executive must settle the matter. The report is on the message of the Governor asking to be held by Davis with the State and under which he claims to be entitled to the commissions stated.

They Want Dillon for Leader.

DUBLIN, June 5.—A strong effort is being made to settle the Irish troubles by forming a union of the factions under the leadership of John Dillon. The project is advocated by many of the Irish Members of Parliament and Archbishop Croke. It is stated that William O'Brien favored Justin McCarthy as the party's leader.

No English Interference.

LONDON, June 5.—Sir James Ferguson, Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs, denied in the House of Commons that England had pledged herself to employ either her naval or military forces in the defense of Italian interests against French attack, as represented in the recently published letter of M. Millevoge.

Florida Votes for Dr. Brooks.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., June 5.—The standing committee of the Episcopal Diocese of Florida met and voted in favor of the consecration of the Rev. Phillips Brooks as the bishop of the Massachusetts Diocese.

Sir John Macdonald's Condition.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 5.—Reports from the residence of Sir John Macdonald, are to the effect that the old Premier is slowly sinking.

Owen Appointed.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—The President appointed William D. Owen of Logan-port, Ind., Superintendent of Immigration.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—U. S. Gov't Report, Aug. 17, 1889.

THE HOUSE FELL ON THEM.

Three Men Killed by the Collapse of a Building.

CHICAGO, June 4.—A two-story frame house at 161 West Jackson street fell during the afternoon and killed three men.

The house stood on cellar posts and the men had gone in under it to escape the heat and to drink beer.

The men killed outright were George Schwartz, William Schwartz and John Cahill. Three others were under the house with them at the time of the accident, and of these Gus Schwartz cannot recover.

The men, under the influence of the beer, began to wrestle, and two of them fell against one of the rotten posts and the whole structure collapsed.

STRANGLER TO DEATH.

The Murder of Miss May in Dedham Results in a Double Tragedy.

DEDHAM, Mass., June 4.—There is great excitement here over the murder of Miss Mary Emerson, who conducted a small boarding house on High Rock street. She was found dead in a closet in the kitchen of her residence. There were finger marks on the throat, and it was evident that the woman had been choked to death.

The kitchen showed evidence of a desperate struggle.

A German of the name of August is suspected. He was in the employ of Miss Emerson, and his room-mate, Philip Hoffman, declares that he left him in bed. August has not since been seen.

The police looked up Hoffman, pending an investigation, but they do not think him guilty.

Miss Emerson's age is now stated to be 73. She was reputed to be worth $25,000 which, it is said, she intended to leave for the support of the poor of West Dedham.

Advertising

It is said will sell anything, this is true in a measure; but for staying qualities—merit is the best. Extensive advertising may sell anything where it is new or unknown, but after it comes into general use, it is judged according to its worth. The continued and steady growth of Swift's Specific is the best evidence of its excellence.

It is most popular where it is best known. Every bottle sold, sells ten others. Every one that takes it becomes its friend, and recommends it to their acquaintances.
